OPEN the door!

To a world of possibilities and success.

Angela Winfield presents OPEN

This is a powerful and content-rich, motivational and inspirational, 45-minute keynote program that will OPEN your mind, OPEN your eyes and OPEN the door to your full potential, unlimited vision and true success! Transformative only begins to describe the power of OPEN.

Whether in their personal or professional lives, people are pre-occupied with barriers, boundaries and obstacles. There are glass ceilings, communication barriers, walls and divides. They focus on what they "can't do" or what "can't be done" and stop there instead of finding out what actually is possible. The people who do this often are intelligent, capable, talented, hard-working people full of potential, but retreat at the slightest sign of difficulty or resistance. The problem with this behavior is that it stunts growth and results in missed opportunities. It may be human nature, but it is not fulfilling or productive. The human spirit is capable of much greater feats, accomplishments and innovations. Angela's own success is proof of that.

Everyone loves a human interest story and a story of the strength of the human spirit. Angela goes above and beyond just sharing her amazing story of overcoming her blindness to become an ivy league educated and highly rated attorney. She uses her engaging story to show exactly how it is possible. Angela designed this program to motivate, educate and inspire audiences to shift their O-outlook, create a strategic personal and professional life P-plan, invest in personal and professional E-education, and develop strong and supportive personal and professional N-networks so that they can unleash their full potential and maximize their success. Each keynote is customized to the specific audience.

At the end of the program, you will be able to:

- ✦ Overcome and break through obstacles or barriers standing in your way!
- ✦ Go after what you want and get it!
- ✦ Live your life fearlessly and with purpose!

OPEN is for you, if:

- ✦ You are ready to take a hard, deep look at yourself and your life.
- ✦ You are willing to abandon old ways of thinking that are holding you back.
- ✦ You are excited about becoming the absolute best "you" possible.
